Advancing Journalistic Excellence Since 1932

SHOP TALK Special Edition, 2022

Bob Woodward at the Press Club for ANWC's 90th

ANWC celebrated its 90th Anniversary and honored the legendary Bob Woodward for Excellence in Journalism at the Press Club May 12, 2022. It was a spectacular evening reflecting on Woodward's accomplishments and the impact he has made over the past five decades. This year is particularly special because it is the 50th anniversary of Watergate. His focus was on the women who have helped support his career.

Bob Woodward and Norah O'Donnell.

Bob Woodward, ANWC Excellence in Journalism (ANWC-EJ) Award Winner 2022, flanked by Claire Swift, Exec. Chair, ANWC President, Mary Catherine Andrews (MC), and Norah O'Donnell, emcee and ANWC-EJ Award Winner 2015 at the National Press Club podium.

CBS News' Norah O'Donnell and EJU recipient 2015 did a fantastic job emceeding the evening. Washington Posts, Sally Buzbee, Sally Quinn, and John Feinstein along with CBS News' Robert Costa all gave both touching and hilarious speeches about their individual relationships with Woodward.

Claire Swift and ANWC EU honoree '22 Bob Woodward pose with ANWC EU Award

Claire Swift Remarks: Greetings, everyone! I'm Claire Sanders Swift, ANWC past president and Exec. Chair of this epic evening celebrating feats in journalism and the 90th year of the American News Women's Club.

Yes, and Bob Woodward, our honoree, is in the room. (I am pinching myself). To me Bob Woodward has been setting the highest standards for all future journalists and now holds the title, as one of our most gracious awardees ---Walter Cronkite, Barbara Walters, move over, Bob Woodward is here. It's our privilege to honor him and the excellence he has dedicated to our field for more than 50 years. You'll hear all about Bob Woodward, the legend, tonight after dinner...

We are honored to have you all here. It is you who make this evening special. 90 years ago, in 1932 - the 4th year of a global depression - the American Newspaper Women's Club forged off on its own with founding members from Washington Herald, Washington Star, Washington Times and the Washington Post. In fact, you'll be happy to know that ANWC's first president in 1932 was Kate Brooks from the Washington Post. (cont. page 2)

30 Years of Scholarship Winners

Since 1993, we have awarded over 50 scholarships to talented journalism students in the Washington, DC area for almost 30 years. This year we presented our scholarship awards to Nzinga Temu, (Howard '22), Hannah Loder (GWU '23), and Daniella Jimenez (AU '23). Nzinga, who graduated this spring, wrote for a national wire service and is passionate about writing. Hannah, a rising senior, hopes to work in magazine journalism and write feature stories for a major magazine publication. Daniella, a rising junior, will continue developing her reporting skills as an intern for CNBC in Spanish this summer.

President's Message: "Saving History"

Dear Members and Friends of the ANWC,

I am thrilled to be returning as president of the ANWC once more to manage a new year of "Saving History" on the heels of our epic 90th Anniversary Gala Honoring Bob Woodward, also the 50th year of Watergate. It was a successful evening in many ways, and we have shared some wonderful photos in this issue of Shop Talk. We are particularly thankful to our sponsors and those who supported us large and small.

I'm honored to be working with you in every capacity this year to remember, revive and restore our Club's illuminating history through the decades. In that order, we will be holding historical (in person) programs and we will be planning a special day at the Club where people bring in, mail in or share something saved. Hal Matson has joined the Board again, this year, as head of the History Committee.

Please renew your membership, answer a few fun survey questions on the renewal invoice and sign up for a committee or two. We need your expertise and support now more than ever. I look forward to hearing from you and seeing you at the Club this year.

Respectfully,
Jean White

In 2022, special thanks and gratitude are in order to the Washington Post for sponsorship as well as the Marion Mattingly Family and Peraton. I also want to extend a special thanks to longtime Member Pauline Thompson for bringing a huge crew this evening...Through global pandemics, world wars and depressions, the ANWC still stands. 52 ANWC presidents later, through hundreds of distinguished speakers and thousands of accomplished members. Through 16 U.S. presidencies...

with every first lady a member (in the day...) our members have been very active, asking the right questions - and making progress in our quest for knowledge, truth, accuracy and getting the story right. We've earned our place and hope to do so for 90 more years. I turn over the podium to our ANWC President, M.C. Andrews. MC has held the torch high for the ANWC for the past several years...we are eternally grateful, lucky to have you and can't wait to hear from you.

Bob Woodward addresses the ANWC with a focus on the great women in his career who have supported him beginning with Katharine Graham.
